MMTC is regarded as the leading national nonprofit organization that convenes and advocates for diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity in media and telecom.

Our nationally recognized fellowships, trainings, and advocacy programs promote ownership diversity and universal service for historically disadvantaged communities and people of color. Our efforts have built the pipeline for diverse professionals and entrepreneurs entering the communications industries.

In furtherance of these aims, we have outlined a list of the key initiatives we are championing this year. Each of them endeavors to achieve employment, ownership, and supply chain diversity in our industries.

WHO WE ARE.

The Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council (MMTC) is the tech, media, and telecom (TMT) industries' leading non-partisan, national nonprofit diversity organization. Since opening our doors in 1986, MMTC has worked tirelessly to promote and preserve equal opportunity, civil rights, and social justice in the mass media, telecom, and broadband industries, and to close the digital divide.

Widely recognized as the leading policy advocacy organization working at the intersection of communications policy, diversity, and equal opportunity, MMTC's Broadband and Social Justice and Access to Capital and Telecom Policy conferences, policy salons, and other convenings have attracted members of Congress, federal agency and industry chiefs, and leading civil rights and social justice leaders.

WHAT WE'VE DONE

MMTC has regularly engaged as many as 80 national organizations to participate in selected proceedings before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), where we have strong relationships, advocating on major tech, media, and telecom issues that have widespread impact on our communities. MMTC also has led advocacy coalitions and made presentations in proceedings at the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) of the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL), the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), the General Accounting Office (GAO), the federal courts of appeals, the U.S. Congress, and the U.S. Supreme Court. - We helped diversify the communications bar by training and deploying a pipeline of over 100 lawyers and professionals into the communications industries.

Today:

- We testify before Congress as subject matter experts on media diversity issues
- We convene thought leaders and influence policies to ensure that low-income consumers have access to the internet
- We serve on two FCC advisory committees focusing on Broadcast Diversity and Development, Digital Empowerment and Inclusion, Broadband Access and Deployment, and Diversity in the Tech Sector
- We produce webinars, conferences, policy salons, white papers, and podcasts on TMT issues, as well as trainings to help workers gain the skills to get high-demand jobs in the TMT sectors
- We produce major conferences promoting Access to Capital and Broadband and Social Justice
- To increase our impact and expand our voice, we regularly lead joint filings with dozens of partner advocacy groups such as the National Urban League, League of United Latin American Citizens, NAACP and many others

MEDIA & TELECOM BROKERS

For over two decades, MMTC Media & Telecom Brokers have conducted one-third of the minority broadcast acquisitions.

ABOUT THE BROKERAGE

Since its founding in 1997, the MMTC Broadcasting, LLC. has distinguished itself as the only nonprofit, minority-owned, full-service media and telecom brokerage in the United States. The brokerage has actively participated in nearly $2B worth of transactions that promote diverse media ownership including the largest-ever single station radio deal by Los Angeles FM to Radio One from Clear Channel in 2000 for $450M. Moreover, in 2012, MMTC brokered the largest-ever sale of spectrum to a minority buyer when it brokered the sale of spectrum from Verizon to Grain Management for $287M.

Clients have included dozens of minority broadcasters as well as Clear Channel (now iHeart Media), Infinity (now CBS Radio), NBC, ION, Max Media, LIN Television, Gray Television, Entercom, Nexstar and Radio One. Also, media partners have donated hundreds of radio and LPTV stations including the 2010 donation of 147 LPTV stations from Trinity Broadcasting. Media partners benefit from station donations by receiving a nonprofit tax write-off and brokerage uses donated stations to promote diverse ownership, incubation, LMA, consulting services and training opportunities for minority and women broadcasters!

In 2018, MMTC is developing phase two of the brokerage by partnering with venture capital partners to launch of a venture fund for multicultural entrepreneurs, and connecting entrepreneurs with business opportunities in the supply chain in the media, telecom, and tech sectors.
